YOU'RE BILIOUS! CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS TONIGHT

Don't stay headachy, sick, or have bad breath and sour stomach.

Wake up feeling fine! Best laxative for men, women and children.

Enjoy life! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive, and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store and eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never gripe or sicken like salts, pills, and calomel. They act so gently that you hardly realize you have taken a cathartic. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious or feverish children a whole Cascaret any time—they act thoroughly and are harmless.—Adv.

Prepare This for a Bad Cough—It's Fine

Cheaply and Easily Made, but Does the Work Quickly.

The finest cough syrup that money can buy, costing only about one-fifth as much as ready-made preparations, can easily be made up at home. The way it takes hold and conquers distressing coughs, throat and chest colds will really make you enthusiastic about it. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth). Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Shake thoroughly and it is ready for use. The total cost is about 14 cents and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective, pleasant tasting remedy. It keeps perfectly.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the inflamed or swollen throat membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough will disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with quinine and is known the world over for its prompt healing effect on the throat membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.—Adv.

Floyd Thompson Active Booster For Good Roads

Local Business Man Devotes Much of His Time to Work; Is Moving Spirit Behind Proposed Ozark Road West From Metropolis.

Some men are born to publicity—for example, there's the crown prince of England; some achieve publicity—as in the case of Mr. Roosevelt; and some have publicity thrust upon them—which is a very sage and original remark.

"Ozark" Is Other Name. Anyhow, as Luke McLuke is fond of remarking—what we started out to say was that the subject of this sketch—Mr. Floyd R. Thompson, better known as "Ozark" Thompson—has had this particular bit of publicity shoved upon him without his knowledge. He will not be aware that it has appeared in print until he rushes out feverishly from his office—as is his invariable custom—when he hears the cry of "Time Sere Mister, One Cent," from the newsboys.

Oh, dear, yes; the above picture is an excellent reproduction of the president of the Oklahoma City Retailers' association, chairman of the good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce and one of its board of directors, not to mention senior member of the firm of Thompson & Brumington and—oh, yes, a shining light in the local Ozark Trails organization—and—lots of other things besides. All of 'em good, though.

Here From Mexico. Mr. Thompson has been a resident of Oklahoma City for about seven years. He came here shortly after leaving Parral, Chihuahua, Mexico, where he was an official in a silver-mining company. Arriving in the best city in the southwest he secured the agency for an automobile. He was one of the original lizzers of the southwest. He quit the salesmanship position to become a member of the harness company which now bears his name.

Mr. Thompson has given over the reins of this business to his partner and son since the Ozark Trail agitation, and now spends twenty-five hours of the twenty-four in the work of promoting the proposed highway west from Oklahoma City.

Work of Love. He receives no compensation whatsoever for his labor—it is a work of love. He is one of those men who believe that in building good roads the cause of civilization is best served, as well as Christianity. For if any one thing will make a bad Christian of a good one it is a bad road.

He is slightly—very slightly—bald. But who ever saw grass growing on a busy street? His favorite form of recreation is telling Col. W. H. Harvey of Monte Ne, Ark., and president of the Ozark Trails organization, what an unprogressive section of the world he came from.

PROSPERITY IS DUE TO WILSON, SAYS BARRETT

Democrats Do Not Claim He Brought Rain, but Assert He Has Made Good Times.

"Every time it rained during the McKinley administration, the republicans would scoop up a little of the wet mud and point with pride at the White House. 'See what the republicans done!' they would query."

The speaker was Senator Charles F. Barrett, manager of the democratic state press bureau. He was talking at the donation of a bushel of wheat by an Oklahoma farmer to the Wilson campaign fund. The wheat will be sold in the Lee-Huckins hotel lobby at auction in the immediate future.

"Through the fact that Mr. Wilson occupies the White House, the country is enjoying greater prosperity than ever in its history. The democrats do not claim he is responsible for every rain, but we do claim that he is responsible for the present prosperity," he continued. "Hence, what is more appropriate than that good Oklahoma wheat, which is now more valuable than in many years, thanks to Mr. Wilson, should be donated to his campaign fund."

The hearty about it is that the wheat may start to Oklahoma City valued at only say, $1.40, and arrive here valued at $1.50.

Houses and apartments for rent will be best advertised in the Want Ads this week and next.

ORGANIZED PUBLICITY PROPOSED FOR CHURCH

Episcopal Convention Discusses Method of Reaching Mass Outside.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—Use of efficiency systems in the conduct of the business of the church, coupled with a larger publicity for church propaganda is being urged by delegates to the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, in session here today. As a step toward this end the Rev. James Wise of St. Louis, suffragan bishop-elect of Kansas, said he had drafted a resolution looking toward the establishment of a permanent church publicity commission, having for its purpose the furthering of the work of the church.

"In our churches we can reach many but it is through the newspapers and other periodicals that we can best reach the man outside," he said. "We are coming to the point where we must realize that the church like all other large organizations interested in molding public sentiment can best do it through organized publicity."

Large Investments in Plants. Doctor Wise pointed out that the church has a large investment in church plants and that to get the best returns from it publicity is necessary.

Discussion of proposed changes in the liturgy as recommended in the report of the joint commission on the book of common prayer was on today's calendar.

Conferees May End Oil Strike

BAYONNE, N. J., Oct. 17.—A committee of ten, representing the striking employees of the Standard Oil plant, held a conference today with George B. Hennessy, general manager of the company's establishment at Constance Hook, where riots have caused three deaths and many injuries. The conferees will endeavor to reach an agreement on wages. The strikers demand an increase of 20 percent for those receiving $3 a day or upwards, and of 30 percent for those paid less than $3. Mr. Hennessy said the company was willing to take the men back only at the wages that prevailed before the strike.

EDUCATORS PLAN MILITARY COURSES FOR COLLEGES

Score of Presidents Confer With War Department Heads Regarding Preparations.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Military education for college students particularly the reserve officers' training corps system provided by the new national defense act, was discussed by nearly a score of university and college presidents, meeting here today, with war department officials. The presidents obtained explanations on which they will base recommendations of systems of training for their respective institutions.

To Instruct Junior Officers. Representatives of most land-grant colleges, where military drill is well developed, predicted their schools would institute the four-year course prescribed by the army to instruct the junior officers of the regular army reserve. This plan would require the war department to furnish equipment and pay for advanced students. Land-grant college presidents also were enthusiastic over a proposed course for reserve army engineers.

Favor Theoretical Study. Presidents of some institutions that now have no arrangements for military training favored inauguration of tactics study without the reserve officer system and others said their schools could best develop the summer training camp plan. A few said only theoretical study of military studies could be established at first.

War department officials received suggestions from colleges for establishing varying grades of training. The meeting was called by Secretary of War Baker, but in his absence, Assistant Secretary Ingram and Major General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, presided.

Educators Attend. Among those invited were A. Lawrence Lowell, Harvard university; Arthur T. Hadley, Yale university; J. E. Raycroft, Princeton university; George H. Denny, University of Alabama; Edward A. Pace, Catholic university; Brown Ayres, University of Tennessee; Granville Clark, J. Lloyd Derby and Dr. Lancy K. Jay of New York, respectively secretary of the government committee, treasurer and executive secretary of the Military Training Camps association. Major General Taff H. Bliss, assistant chief of staff, and Major General Leonard Wood were among the army officers attending.

FRENCHMEN DRINKING BEER AND CIDER NOW

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Cider and beer have taken the place of wine in many Parisian households, according to figures from American consuls, which show that during August 20,000,000 less quarts of wine were brought into Paris than in August, 1915. Approximately 6,000,000 more quarts of cider and beer were brought to the city. The same dispatch reports a meat shortage in Paris. The importation of frozen meat is being urged by consumers and others.

HINTS FOR YOUR HOME

IN reply to many queries concerning Halloween games:

Apple Paring. Each guest, receiving an apple and knife, is required to peel the apple without breaking; then swing the paring around the head and let it drop to the floor. The letter formed is the initial of the future mate's name.

Partners.

The players divide themselves into ladies and gentlemen, if the ladies predominate some must partner gentlemen, and vice versa. The gentlemen then proceed to choose lady partners. One of the players next undertakes to question the couples. The fun consists of the questions being put to the lady and the gentleman answering for her. "Do you like your partner?" the lady is asked, and the gentleman may reply, "Yes, I adore him." Whatever the reply, the lady is forbidden to deny it; if she does, or if she answers for herself, she must pay a forfeit. But retaliation comes, for when all the ladies have been questioned the gentlemen's turn arrives, and the ladies answer for their partners. "What is your favorite occupation?" the question may be, and the lady may answer, "Dressing dolls," or "Making mud pies," or anything ridiculous that occurs to her.

Nuts to Crack.

Pencils and paper with following questions are given to each guest: 1—A structure. 2—A dairy product. 3—A letter of the alphabet and an article made of tin. 4—A name applied to one of our presidents. 5—A girl's name. 6—Every ocean has one. 7—The names of two boys. 8—A country. 9—That which often holds a treasure. 10—A vegetable. The above describes ten different nuts which are to be guessed.

The answers are: 1—Walnut. 2—Butternut. 3—Peanut. 4—Hickorynut. 5—Hazelnut. 6—Beachnut. 7—Filbert. 8—Brazil nut. 9—Chestnut. 10—Peanut.

The Needle Game. Each person floats a greased needle in a tub of water. Impelled by attraction of gravitation needles will act very curiously; some cling together, others rush to the margin and remain. The manner in which one person's needle behaves toward another's causes amusement and is supposed to be suggestive and prophetic. ## YEAR MOST PROSPEROUS FARMER HAS ENJOYED

President of Congress Discusses Prosperity and Conditions of Labor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 17.—Prosperity, preparedness and conditions of labor, including the Adamson 8-hour law were among the subjects discussed by H. Stockbridge of Atlanta, Ga., president of the Farmers' National congress at the opening session of the thirty-sixth annual session here today. In part he said:

"The American farmer has never seen so general or widespread a period of agricultural prosperity as that of the present year. Though the farmer may still fail to receive his fair share of the consumer's dollar, the milk producers of New York, the wheat growers of Minnesota, the hog raisers of the corn belt and the cotton growers of the south are too busy counting profits to worry much over the other fact."

There are 1,500 delegates attending the convention.

ROOSEVELT ON TEN-DAY TRIP IN HUGHES' AID

Roosevelt Will Go As Far West As Phoenix, Arizona, and Denver.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt left this morning on a ten-day campaign trip for Hughes that will take him as far west as Phoenix, Ariz., and Denver. The colonel started in a private car attached to a regular train for Cincinnati where the first speech of his trip will be delivered tomorrow night.

From Ohio he will go in a special train for a tour of Kentucky with the principal speech to be made in Louisville. Thence he will continue by special train direct to Phoenix. After his address there, he will stop to speak at Albuquerque on his way to Denver. Leaving Denver October 24, he expects to arrive in Chicago October 26 and leave there for New York on the following day, arriving home October 28.
